

SUFFRAGISTS GO WEST TO FIGHT DEMOCRATS

Special Car Carries Woman Campaign Speakers to Scene of Congressional Warfare for Battle.

Decorated with the national and suffrage colors a special car carrying women campaign speakers representing the Congressional Union for Woman's Suffrage left here shortly before noon today over the Pennsylvania railroad for the middle west. Arriving at Chicago the party will separate, going into various states where the suffrage campaign is to be waged against the democratic candidates for Congress.

"The plan," declared Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the union, today, "is for the women of the east to appeal to the women voters of the west to withhold their support from the national democratic party until that party ceases blocking the national suffrage amendment."

"We are going to tell the people just what we think of the democratic party," said Miss Paul. "We are not going to fight individuals, but the democratic party. We will show Majority Leader Underwood and Mr. Henry of the rules committee that we can do some effective work against the organization of the House."

Policy of Union Bared.
The policy of the union, which was adopted at Newport, was kept secret until yesterday afternoon, when it was announced at a lawn party at the residence of Col. Henry F. Blount, 31st and R. streets northwest, by Miss Paul.

Those who assisted in receiving were Mrs. F. W. Mondell, wife of Representative Mondell of Wyoming; Mrs. Ella Logan, president of the District Federation of Women's Club; Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley; Mrs. Charles W. Bell, wife of Representative Bell of California; and Dr. Cora Smith King, treasurer of the National Council of Woman Voters.

Will Establish Headquarters.
Headquarters of the Congressional Union will be established in San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Phoenix, Cheyenne, Salt Lake City, Denver, Boise City and Topeka. Miss Lucy Burns and

IRISH MEN AND WOMEN BLESSSED BY CARDINAL

Belgian Prelate Greeted by Throng of More Than 50,000 in London.

LONDON, September 14.—Remarkable scenes were witnessed yesterday afternoon outside Westminster Cathedral. From the balcony of the cathedral Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium and Archbishop of Malines, blessed a procession of London Irish men and women numbering more than 50,000. He stood between John E. Redmond, the Irish nationalist leader, and T. P. O'Connor, with John Dillon, the Bishop of Southwark, and many distinguished Catholic laymen grouped around.

The appearance of the cardinal was the signal for an outburst of cheering which continued for several minutes. He had recently returned from the papal conclave at Rome, and during his absence from Malines he learned of the havoc wrought by the Germans throughout his archdiocese. In London he learned that his sister and three nephews were among the refugees from Belgium.

Prelate Moved to Tears.
At the outburst the cardinal was overcome with emotion, and tears rolled down his cheeks as he stood with outstretched arms.

The procession occupied an hour in passing, and when the first section reached the cathedral the cardinal, in a gesture of grief, raised his hand, and uttered:

"God save Ireland!" for a fresh roar of cheers, and the crowd shouted back: "God save Belgium!"

After the procession passed Mr. O'Connor read an address, signed by Mr. Redmond, on behalf of the Irish party, and Mr. O'Connor, on behalf of the Irish people, which said:

"We, as Irishmen and Irishwomen in Great Britain and knowing the feelings of our fellow-citizens of our races, join our British fellow-citizens in the determination to see that the afflictions of your country shall be mitigated so far as our good will and our resources can do so."

"Every Belgian widow, every Belgian orphan, every Belgian victim of the war, will find an asylum and loving home in Great Britain."

Cardinal Mercier's Reply.
Cardinal Mercier replied: "Our country is laid waste, but with God's help we shall raise it from its ruins. I invite our countless sympathizers in Great Britain to come to Brussels, Louvain and Malines and celebrate with us in our restored cathedrals and municipal buildings the triumph of the cause of justice, the cause of Great Britain, Ireland, France, Russia and of Belgium, which, having sustained the first shock, will be the foremost in celebrating the final victory."

Cardinal Mercier was received in audience by King George at Buckingham Palace.

REFUGEES RETURN TO HOMES.
Feeling of Confidence Follows Reports of Allies' Advance.

Official reports today from American military observers in France confirmed other reports of the advance of the allied army and the general retreat of the Germans "all along the line."

The feeling of confidence in the success of the allies is reported so widespread that within a radius of nearly thirty miles from Paris refugees who deserted the villages and towns in fear of attack are now returning to their homes.

Wounded are being brought into Paris, the reports say, which is another indication that the French capital no longer fears an attack. It is believed to be not unlikely that the French government may move back to Paris from Bordeaux within a short time if the successes of the allied army continue.

The French commissariat is reported working in perfect order and ammunition trains are keeping the front supplied with regularity.

40,000 AMERICANS NOW IN ENGLAND

All Can Be Sent Home Within a Month, Breckinridge Asserts.

Assistant Secretary Breckinridge, in charge of relief work among Americans in Europe, reported from Paris today that there are now about 40,000 Americans in England, all of whom can obtain transportation home within a month.

Capt. Granville Sevier, who was sent to Genoa to supervise relief work there, reports that he is arranging for the sailing of 500 Americans from that port some time before September 26.

Capt. Bayard S. J. Schindel has left Christiania, Norway, for Petrograd to care for the few Americans still remaining in Russia.

In response to a report that forty Americans were stranded in Bucharest, Roumania, Capt. Matthew A. Cross, at present in Budapest, was given discretionary orders to go to that city, if necessary, to arrange for the proper care of the refugees.

Deposited With Government.
There has been deposited with the government up to Saturday last $2,336,948 for transfer to Europe for relief of Americans abroad, and as the government will also receive deposits made today, the last day, it is expected that the total will run $25,000,000.

With it again possible to transmit money to Europe through regular banking channels, Secretary McAdoo announced last night that the Treasury Department would not receive further deposits of money for Americans abroad.

"The relief work that has been carried on in Europe to assist Americans who are without means will be continued," said the Secretary, "and where deposits have already been made in the United States for the benefit of relatives and friends abroad payments will be made as heretofore whenever the beneficiaries can be found."

"So rapidly has the relief work progressed that it is expected that the representatives of the Treasury Department will not be required to remain in Europe but for a few weeks more."

REPORTS RUSSIAN ROUT

German Official Statement Claims Decisive Victory in East Prussia.

A wireless message to the Associated Press from Berlin, via Sayville, L. I., quotes an official German statement as saying:

"The retreat of the Russian army in east Prussia appears to be developing into flight and demoralization. Gen. Hindenburg reports the capture of 150 guns and between 20,000 and 30,000 prisoners."

Of the campaign in France the dispatch says: "A new battle is in progress, which up to the present has been favorable to the Germans. Reports from Paris and London of a German defeat are declared untrue."

U. S. JUDICIAL RIGHTS TO CONTINUE IN CHINA

Only Big Country Where Privilege Exists After Turkey Abolished Treaty.

With the abrogation of the extraterritorial rights of Americans in Turkey, there remains only one big country in which the United States, by reason of the diversity of laws, customs and habits, would insist upon exercising judicial functions, namely, in China.

The spread throughout the world in recent years of Christian civilization has wiped from the list of countries in which the United States exercises such rights Japan, Korea, Madagascar, the Samoan Islands and part of Persia.

Besides China, the United States will continue to exercise extraterritorial rights of the broadest kind in Siam and limited rights in Morocco, Tunis, Algeria and in the sultanate of Aman in Persia.

Turkey's Action Explained.
Japan had granted extraterritorial rights to the United States by treaty exclusively, and so abrogated the rights by another treaty, effective in 1890. In this respect, it is claimed on behalf of Turkey that abrogation of extraterritorial rights within its dominions may well differ from that pursued by Japan. Turkey claims that these rights within its borders were based largely upon ancient custom and hence abrogation might well be by a unilateral decision instead of by a treaty.

Rule Applied to Morocco.
Annexation of Madagascar by France worked an abrogation of extraterritorial rights there, and France is now suggesting that its control of Morocco is sufficient to justify the United States in withdrawing extraterritorial rights from American consulates in that country.

American extraterritorial rights ceased in the Samoan Islands when the United States and Germany divided them between themselves. With the fall of extraterritorial rights in Turkey would go the same rights in Egypt.

Fire Threatens Million-Dollar Plant.
BUFFALO, N. Y., September 14.—Fire which broke out at noon today in a crude oil still of the Atlas works of the Standard Oil Company here threatened the destruction of the entire million-dollar plant. The flames spread with great rapidity, three other stills, each containing 1,000 barrels of crude oil.
